Subject: Information regarding patient C Dharma Tej (Hospital No. 5002060)

Patient details: Dharma Tej, a 10-year-old boy was admitted on 13/12/2023 to St. John's hospital with complaints of 15% electrical burns affected right and left forearm, chest, face and back. He has undergone debridement of all the burn wounds and dressings. And the patient requires further surgeries of matriderm application, skin grafting, staple removal, and VAC application. According to the treating team, child requires long term hospital stay and treatment. The estimated cost of treatment is 5 lakhs which is expected to increase. Now the total bill is Rs. 132,727/- will increase after further surgeries. They managed to pay 1 lakh.

Family details: The patient's family hails from Ananthapur, Andhra Pradesh and they consists of 4 members. Patients father is the only breadwinner of the family. He is a saree weaver in a small shop with monthly income of Rs.10,000/- The mother is a home maker. And the elder daughter is studying in 9th standard. There is no other social or financial support from family or relatives because of intercast marriage of parents. Before this admission patient brought to St. Johns emergency department on 10/12/2023 and went DAMA to Victoria hospital due to financial constraints. Now patient came back again for further evaluation and management. The parents have utilized their savings and at present some friends are helping. They are emotionally and financially exhausted and have expressed financial constraints.

The patient is from a low socio-economic background. The patient is genuine and deserves treatment support. In view of the above, we humbly request you to kindly consider this case, support and provide necessary financial support for this deserving patient, which will be of a great support.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

Ms. Jainy Jose
Medico Social Worker
